

MANAGER TO LEADER

Leadership is misunderstood. It has about 60 sub-skills, including Coaching, Delegation, Presentation skills, Time management, Performance management, Negotiations skills, Strategy formulation, Assertiveness, Goal setting etc. To practice leadership effectively, a broad understanding of its tactile nuances, its basics, its key features is critical. In this workshop we touch upon them and ensure your awareness of their importance is clear.

How You Will Benefit:

- Identify the steps you can take to implement lessons learnt during the workshop
- Identify the areas you, individually, need to focus on (Individually tailored)
- Develop appropriate Action plans / Accountability (Individually tailored)
- Learn ways to create a leadership learning culture / environment for yourself
- Learn how to be an effective leader and focus on the things that matter
- Key leadership sub-skills developed
